

Richard Abramowitz

Richard Abramowitz has been assisting Florida personal injury victims for more than 30 years. His practice focuses on personal injury cases including wrongful death, catastrophic injury, auto accidents, premises liability, product liability and medical malpractice. Mr. Abramowitz has handled thousands of personal injury claims and has received significant recoveries for his clients.

A tireless advocate for the injured, Mr. Abramowitz often takes on the difficult cases that other law firms refuse, including complex catastrophic injury cases where fault may be difficult to prove. In his 30 year career, Mr. Abramowitz has extensive personal injury experience and has been involved in many high-profile cases.

Mr. Abramowitz is a member of the American Association for Justice, the American Bar Association, The Florida Bar, the Million Dollar Advocates Forum and the Florida Justice Association. He is admitted to practice in all state courts and the Federal District Court for the Southern District of Florida. He is also admitted to practice in the state of New York.

Mr. Abramowitz has served as corporate counsel to private corporations and handled all aspects of their legal requirements. Mr. Abramowitz previously served as director of a publicly traded insurance holding company; and he currently serves as a director of a number of corporations.

Mr. Abramowitz was awarded his law degree from Hofstra University School of Law, where he graduated as one of the top-ten students in his class and was a member of the Hofstra Law Review. He received his Bachelor of Science degree in finance from Long Island University. Richard Abramowitz is AV-rated by Martindale-Hubbell and is included in their Bar Register of Preeminent Lawyers.

Howard Pomerantz

Howard Pomerantz has been fighting for his client’s rights for over 30 years. His practice areas include personal injury, wrongful death, medical malpractice and product liability. He is the co-founder of Abramowitz, Pomerantz, & Coffey, P.A., serves as Senior Litigation Counsel and tries cases in both state and federal courts.

Though Mr. Pomerantz has been involved in thousands of injury cases, he holds a special interest in cases that can have a profound and positive impact on consumer safety.

Mr. Pomerantz tried one of the first automated external defibrillators (A.E.D.s) cases in the United States against a health club for failure to have the devices and secured a multi-million dollar recovery. As a result of this case, he received an award from Fitness Institute International and was an invited lecturer at the 2002 National Convention of the International Health and Racquet Sports Association. Mr. Pomerantz has also prevailed in a landmark case regarding wrongful death as the result of drowning.

Mr. Pomerantz is AV-rated by Martindale-Hubbell and is included in their Bar Register of Preeminent Lawyers. In 2008, he was voted Trial Lawyer of the Year by the American Board of Trial Advocates - Fort Lauderdale Chapter. Super Lawyers magazine has recognized him as one of the top medical malpractice plaintiff lawyers in Florida in each of the last five years.

Mr. Pomerantz is an EAGLE member of the Florida Justice Association, a member of the American Association for Justice, the American Bar Association, the American Board of Trial Advocates, The Florida Bar, the Florida Justice Association, the Broward County Bar Association, the Million Dollar Advocates Forum and the Broward County Justice Association. Mr. Pomerantz was awarded his law degree from Vanderbilt University in 1976 and his Bachelor of Arts Degree from the University of Rochester in 1973.

In addition to his full-time law practice, Mr. Pomerantz volunteers with Broward Lawyers Care—a program providing pro bono legal services to indigent community members in Broward County. He is also a member of The Florida Bar’s Seek Counsel of Professional Experience (SCOPE) Panel, to advise and mentor young attorneys. He has served as President of the Fort Lauderdale Chapter of the American Board of Trial Advocates; and he also served as the organization’s President-Elect, Vice President, Secretary and Treasurer.
